Principal Message

Greetings Holy Family,

Catholic Schools Week has been full of joy so far this week. I am loving how our students and families are celebrating our school and each other as the week continues to unfold. Starting with our readers and singers this weekend, we have shined as a community of faith and companionship. Special shout out to our three middle school leaders who shared the podium with me at the end of the masses to talk about our school: Miracle, Justus, and Allyssa! Thank you to each student and parent who calls Holy Family School home.

God bless you all,
Mrs. Day
